

SAINT ANTHONY CATHOLIC CHURCH

EL SEGUNDO, CALIFORNIA

FIFTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

JULY 12, 2015

Reflection

In the Old Testament, God chose ordinary men to deliver his messages to his people. Some of them were called as prophets, some as kings and judges. Today we read that God chose Amos, an ordinary farmer to prophesy to the people of Israel. Amos was a shepherd and dresser of sycamore trees. And at the appointed time, God sent His Son, Jesus to reveal God's saving power and love, and establish God's kingdom on earth. To make His message reach the ends of the world, Christ called ordinary men and women to be His disciples and messengers to all the world.

Today we read in the gospel that Christ summoned the twelve apostles whom he chose and began to send them out in pairs to go and preach the message of salvation. He gave them authority over unclean spirits and warned them not to take anything with them for this journey but a walking stick. Thus the apostles became the first missionaries in the New Testament.

The word "apostle" comes from the Greek word "apostolos" meaning messenger or person sent forth. Missionary is an English word that is derived from the Latin word "missio" meaning "send or to be sent". Thus the Church built on the foundation of the apostles is a Missionary Church. The Second Vatican Council Decree on the Mission Activity of the Church confirms that "the Pilgrim Church is missionary by her very nature, since it is from the mission of the Son and the mission of the Holy Spirit that she draws her origin..." (Ad Gentes 1.2).

The word mission is related to evangelization which means "to preach the gospel and to convert people. This is what the Church had been commanded to do, to proclaim the good news to all nations baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit. But the work of the Church is not restricted to preaching and baptizing as in the "Pentecostal or evangelical" sense. Rather the mission of the Church is both spiritual and physical. When Christ was sending the apostles out, He gave them authority over unclean spirits. He taught them to preach repentance, forgiveness, and to anoint sick people with oil and cure them. The Church fulfills her mission of evangelization when bishops, priests, religious, and lay people all work together in proclaiming the word of God in every celebration of the sacraments and in the faithful living out of its message. By virtue of our baptism we have been sent to be missionaries to our families and communities to carry out the works of mercy and justice as the Holy Spirit empowers us to do. As Jesus instructed His apostles in the gospel to focus on the proclamation of the Word and not on the material provisions of this life, He reminds us today to keep our eyes fixed on our mission. If we seriously commit ourselves to the mission He has entrusted to us, God who is always generous, will surely provide for our material needs.

Safeguard the Children

Did you Know

Help children be aware of unhealthy behavior among others

Children have more opportunities to be out of your immediate sight during the summer. It's important to remind your child that if another child or adult – including people they know and trust – try to touch them inappropriately they should: Say NO and GET AWAY from any person or situation that makes them feel scared, uncomfortable or confused. Tell them to TRUST THEIR FEELINGS and be sure to TELL a trusted adult. And it's never too late to tell a trusted adult what happened. Mensaje para Reflexionar

Los doce apóstoles enviados por Jesucristo curaban muchos enfermos, pero los católicos de este siglo no logramos lo mismo: hoy no se ven los milagros de antaño.

Esta realidad hace que muchos se pregunten si es posible que la fuerza de Dios haya disminuido. No. Lo que ha mermado es la fe de los actuales apóstoles y discípulos de Jesús: estamos desaprovechando la gracia que «superabundantemente derramó sobre nosotros toda sabiduría y prudencia».

Elegidos antes de la constitución del mundo para llevar la Buena Nueva a nuestros congéneres, podemos empapar todas nuestras acciones en la Sangre de Nuestro Señor Jesucristo por todos, para que seamos santos e inmaculados ante Él, de manera que esas acciones realicen la curación que quiere hoy Jesús para todos los hombres: que puedan oír los sordos que no escuchan la voz del amor, que se levanten y anden los paráliticos que el odio no deja caminar hacia la paz y la perfecta caridad, que hablen los mudos que no confían en el sacramento de la reconciliación, ¡que no haya más ciegos al amor de Dios!

El sendero que nos escoge Jesús es claro: no llevar ni pan ni alforja ni dinero, esto es, no confiar tanto en los valores humanos, sino en la fuerza y el poder de Dios; calzarse con las sandalias del servicio continuo, sin mirar el cansancio personal.

Oración, sacrificio y ansias de llegar a todos. Para Dios no hay acción pequeña: las acciones, las palabras y hasta los pensamientos nobles ofrecidos a Él tienen valor infinito para que, célibes o casados, cumplamos con la misión que tenemos todos, como sus apóstoles y discípulos de estos tiempos.

Ya sabemos que eso es lo que el Señor nos pide. ¿Como respondemos a ese llamado de amor?
