

SAINT ANTHONY CATHOLIC CHURCH

EL SEGUNDO, CALIFORNIA

SIXTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME JULY 21, 2019

Reflection Corner

They are different ways of welcoming God into our life. Abraham in the first reading welcomed the Lord by giving Him a meal. In doing so, he and his household was blessed with a child and another divine visit the following year. In the gospel Martha and Mary both welcomed the Lord and showed hospitality to Him but in different ways. Mary sat at the feet of the Lord and listened to His life-giving Word while Martha busied herself in preparing a meal. But Martha complained to the Lord about her sister, Mary for not helping her with the preparation of the meal. And so she asked the Lord to order Mary to help her with the preparation. But the Lord responded to Martha's demand by saying, "You are anxious and worried about many things. There is need of only one thing. Mary has chosen the better part and it will not be taken from her." Both ways of welcoming the Lord are good and pleasing to the Lord. But to say that the busy ministerial work of serving the Lord is more important so as to leave behind the role and importance of prayer and listening to the Word of God would render your work self-serving. It is more important to listen to God first before we do the work that He is asking us to do. In prayer like Mary in the gospel we sit in front of the Lord to listen to Him and to take to heart His words so that we would know and understand what He wills for us. Let us take the advice of St. Elizabeth Ann Seton to her beloved sisters with regards to doing God's will. These are the words of St. Elizabeth Ann Seton, "What was the first rule of our dear Savior's life? You know it was to do His Father's will. Well, then, the first end I propose in our daily work is to do the will of God; secondly to do it in the manner He wills; and thirdly, to do it because it is His will." Thus, daily prayer and listening to God's word is foundational to having a true, and lively personal relationship with God. St. John Paul II testified to this truth when he wrote these words: The Eucharist is the secret of my day. It gives me strength and meaning to all my activities of service to the Church and to the whole world. In the Eucharist, our Lord and Teacher Himself serves us the heavenly meal of His Sacred Word and His own Body and Blood as we welcome Him into our heart and soul at Mass. Let us listen more attentively to His Word by silencing our minds of all worries and entrusting them all to the Lord.

CSI-COMMUNION OF SAINTS INSTITUTE

"We are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses.."
(Hebrews 12:1)

The saints who are very much alive in this world and who intercede to God for us that we too like them would live our calling as children of God seriously and sincerely are very positive and powerful role models that the Catholic Church offer us. We should study their lives and learn from them so as to imitate them. To help us with our desire and calling to live saintly lives we would like to start an Adult Faith Formation sessions on the saints called "CSI - Communion of Saints Institute" that will meet twice a month on the first and third Tuesdays of the month. Our next meeting will be on Tuesday, July 30th from 7:00 – 8:30 pm in the Parish Center. We would study the lives of the saints by reading books, listening to lectures, watching movies of the lives of the saints, and writing journals of how we practice their virtues in our lives. So, please come and join this institute that you may experience the saints' powerful influence and aid to us.

Safeguard the Children

Did you know?

Drug use prevention starts at home

You know it's important to keep your children, especially teenagers, away from drugs, but besides lecturing, how can you impress this importance on your children? Setting an example at home is a great start — watch how you communicate subtle messages about your own substance use, such as a glass of wine after a "hard day" or overdoing it on prescription medication. Additionally, talk to your children about drug-related rules in real contexts, like parties. Give them realistic scripts for saying no if friends offer them drugs, so they have real options when the time comes. For more prevention ideas, get a copy of the VIRTUS® article "Ten Prevention Practices You May Not Have Considered" at <http://www.la-archdiocese.org/org/protecting/Pages/VIRTUS-Current-Online-Articles.aspx>.

Mensaje para Reflexionar

El pasaje de hoy es el de Marta y María. ¿Quiénes son estas dos mujeres? Marta y María, hermanas de Lázaro, son parientes y fieles discípulas del Señor, que vivían en Betania. Ambas ofrecen acogida al Señor que está de paso, pero lo hacen de modo diverso. María se pone a los pies de Jesús, en escucha, Marta en cambio se deja absorber por las cosas que hay que preparar, y está tan ocupada que se dirige a Jesús diciendo: «Señor, ¿no te importa que mi hermana me haya dejado sola para servir? Dile que me eche una mano» (v. 40). Y Jesús le responde reprendiéndola con dulzura: «Marta, Marta, andas inquieta y preocupada con muchas cosas; sólo una es necesaria» (v. 41).

¿Qué quiere decir Jesús? ¿Cuál es esa cosa sola que necesitamos? Ante todo es importante comprender que no se trata de la contraposición entre dos actitudes: la escucha de la Palabra del Señor, la contemplación, y el servicio concreto al prójimo. No son dos actitudes contrapuestas, sino, al contrario, son dos aspectos, ambos esenciales para nuestra vida cristiana; aspectos que nunca se han de separar, sino vivir en profunda unidad y armonía. Pero entonces, ¿por qué Marta recibe la reprimenda, si bien hecha con dulzura? Porque consideró esencial sólo lo que estaba haciendo, es decir, estaba demasiado absorbida y preocupada por las cosas que había que «hacer». En un cristiano, las obras de servicio y de caridad nunca están separadas de la fuente principal de cada acción nuestra: es decir, el escuchar de la Palabra del Señor, el estar —como María— a los pies de Jesús, con la actitud del discípulo. Y por esto es que se reprende a Marta.

Que también en nuestra vida cristiana oración y acción estén siempre profundamente unidas. Una oración que no conduce a la acción concreta hacia el hermano pobre, enfermo, necesitado de ayuda, el hermano en dificultad, es una oración estéril e incompleta. Pero, del mismo modo, cuando en el servicio eclesial se está atento sólo al hacer, se da más peso a las cosas, a las funciones, a las estructuras, y se olvida la centralidad de Cristo, no se reserva tiempo para el diálogo con Él en la oración, se corre el riesgo de servirse a sí mismo y no a Dios presente en el hermano necesitado. San Benito resumía el estilo de vida que indicaba a sus monjes en dos palabras: «ora et labora», reza y trabaja. Es de la contemplación, de una fuerte relación de amistad con el Señor donde nace en nosotros la capacidad de vivir y llevar el amor de Dios, su misericordia, su ternura hacia los demás. Y también nuestro trabajo con el hermano necesitado, nuestro trabajo de caridad en las obras de misericordia, nos lleva al Señor, porque nosotros vemos precisamente al Señor en el hermano y en la hermana necesitados.

Pidamos a la Virgen María, Madre de la escucha y del servicio, que nos enseñe a meditar en nuestro corazón la Palabra de su Hijo, a rezar con fidelidad, para estar, cada vez más atentos, concretamente, a las necesidades de los hermanos.

-Papa Francisco
