

SAINT ANTHONY CATHOLIC CHURCH

EL SEGUNDO, CALIFORNIA

FOURTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY

JULY 5, 2020

Reflection Corner

We live today in a very tired world. Everybody works hard. There's less and less time to rest and recreate. So many people are just plain exhausted. Everyone needs a break. Because of our exhaustion, quite naturally then, some of the hottest products available today have to do with giving us more energy.

We look for an antidote for our exhaustion. We have coffees and teas. We have drugs and medicines. We have energy bars. We have energy drinks. We eat high-energy food. We wear shoes that give us more energy. And every time they advertise these products, and every time I hear about how much energy somebody gets because they drink this certain kind of drink, or eat this certain kind of food, all I can think of, is one thing: VITAMEATAVEGAMIN! In the classic TV show "I Love Lucy", Lucille Ball made us all laugh as she tried to peddle this wonder drink that was supposed to "pep" you up. Of course, the more Lucy drank the wonder, energy drink, the more intoxicated she became. Thanks to re-runs, Lucy will be making people laugh about Vitameatavegamin for years to come. And sometimes a good laugh is one of the most energizing things of all.

In St. Matthew's Gospel today, as we come to the middle of chapter 11, everybody's a little tired in the Gospel also. All is not well. John the Baptist is in prison. John's followers are a little uncertain about things. Jesus' followers are pretty clueless and keep misinterpreting what Jesus is saying. And there, in the middle of the chapter, Jesus Himself sounds a little tired, a little discouraged, and maybe even a little frustrated. Things are looking more than a little dark. And this is the setting for this beautiful text where Jesus turns to His Father in Heaven in praise and thanksgiving. Jesus opens Himself up to His Father and thanks the Father for revealing His will. Jesus tells us that God opens His heart to children, to infants. He's not trying to be insulting the learned and the wise. Here Jesus reminds us that our search for answers as human beings, our quest for certainty, can ONLY be found in child-like trust in God.

Jesus invites us to a trusting relationship with Himself where we find the only real answer to the haunting questions of life's meaning: which is to be freed from them. Jesus invitation to His new life re-orders and re-defines everything. The old world is passing away. Jesus calls us to come and live in the new world now! It is a better way to live. And peace is the hallmark of this new life. He invites us to give Him our burdens in exchange for His peace. He offers us a true freedom in His new way of life rather than the fear and doubt of OUR old demanding life. He invites us to simply come to Him with all of our soul's exhaustion, and, in His presence, find our rest.

SAINT OF THE WEEK
St. Maria Goretti (1890-1902)
July 6

One of the largest crowds ever assembled for a canonization—250,000—symbolized the reaction of millions touched by the simple story of Maria Goretti. She was the daughter of a poor Italian tenant farmer, had no chance to go to school, never learned to read or write. When she made her First Communion not long before her death at age 12, she was one of the larger and somewhat backward members of the class.

On a hot afternoon in July, Maria was sitting at the top of the stairs of her house, mending a shirt. She was not quite 12 years old, but physically mature. A cart stopped outside, and a neighbor, Alessandro, 18 years old, ran up the stairs. He seized her and pulled her into a bedroom. She struggled and tried to call for help, gasping that she would be killed rather than submit. "No, God does not wish it. It is a sin. You would go to hell for it." Alessandro began striking at her blindly with a long dagger. She was taken to a hospital. Her last hours were marked by the usual simple compassion of the good—concern about where her mother would sleep, forgiveness of her murderer (she had been in fear of him, but did not say anything lest she cause trouble to his family) and her devout welcoming of Viaticum. She died about 24 hours after the attack.

Her murderer was sentenced to 30 years in prison. For a long time he was unrepentant and surly. One night he had a dream or vision of Maria, gathering flowers and offering them to him. His life changed. When he was released after 27 years, his first act was to go to beg the forgiveness of Maria's mother.

Devotion to the young martyr grew, miracles were worked, and in less than half a century she was canonized. At her beatification in 1947, her mother (then 82), two sisters and a brother appeared with Pope Pius XII on the balcony of St. Peter's. Three years later, at her canonization, a 66-year-old Alessandro Serenelli knelt among the quarter-million people and cried tears of joy.

Safeguard The Children Did you know?

Don't be afraid to start a conversation about COVID-19 with your children. If possible, choose a time when your children are likely to want to talk, perhaps at dinner. Ask what they already know and what questions and concerns they have about COVID-19. Everyone reacts differently, but your children's questions can guide your discussion. Listen and answer their questions with facts in a way that they can understand. If you don't know the answer to a question, be honest. Let them know that there are a lot of rumors and false information and that you'll help them learn the facts. If it's appropriate for their age, you can show them how to search for the answer on a reliable website. Best places to learn about COVID-19 are the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) and the World Health Organization (WHO). For more tips, please read the article, "How to talk to your kids about COVID-19," <https://www.mayoclinic.org/diseases-conditions/coronavirus/in-depth/kids-covid-19/art-20482508>.

Mensaje para Reflexionar

Jesús nos dice hoy que el es "manso y humilde de corazón". Y nos invita a examinar su corazón en el que cabemos todos. ¿Si usted tuviera que ofrecer una casa al evangelio de Jesús dónde lo alojaría? ¿En su cabeza o en su corazón? El corazón, no la cabeza, es la única casa donde el evangelio de Jesús puede albergarse.

Los sabios e inteligentes tienen cabeza, los humildes y sencillos tienen un gran corazón. "Te doy gracias, Padre"...

Jesús ofrece descanso a nuestros corazones siempre inquietos, siempre buscando, siempre deseando nuevas aventuras. El cuerpo después de un día de trabajo, después de un largo paseo lo único que necesita es una silla. Para el corazón no hay silla, pero el Señor es la silla para un corazón que necesita descanso, fuerza y sabiduría.

"Vengan a mí los cansados", invitación de Jesús para todos los días, pero invitación urgente y necesaria para los domingos. El domingo es el día en que los cristianos hacemos santo el tiempo, disfrutamos de la creación de Dios y adoramos a Dios Padre y Creador.

Así como durante las vacaciones los niños olvidan libros y maestros y los mayores descansan debajo de la mata...el domingo olvidamos las luchas del trabajo y nos centramos en el Señor que nos habla al corazón. El domingo escuchamos la invitación a ir al Señor y a seguirle. Y recibimos el encargo de anunciar a los hermanos que nadie está excluido del amor y de la gracia de Dios.

Y, a veces, le decimos a Dios: Mira la violencia en el mundo, en mi barrio, en la iglesia. Haz algo. Quisiéramos un Dios que baje a cerrar las pompas de agua, a barrer la basura de las calles, a eliminar los vendedores de drogas... Pero parece que Dios no hace nada. Tiene otro trabajo y nos dice simplemente: "toma mi yugo". El yugo hace el trabajo más fácil, más rápido y más eficiente. El yugo de Jesús es suave. ¿Cómo puede ser suave, preguntan algunos, con tantas normas a cumplir? Sí, el yugo del cristiano tiene sus limitaciones, pero Jesús es mi compañero, unido a Él puedo llevar el peso de mi vida, Jesús tira conmigo y nunca estoy solo con mis problemas.

Y si no puedes, confíale tu debilidad, pídele ayuda, ora y celebra la eucaristía unido al yugo de la comunidad. Maestro, ¿cuál es la tarea más difícil de la vida? No tener ninguna carga que llevar.

Protegiendo a los Niños Sabía usted?

No tenga temor de empezar una conversación sobre COVID-19 con sus hijos

Si es posible, escoja un momento cuando sus hijos quieran platicar, quizá durante la cena. Pregúnteles sobre lo que ellos ya saben y qué preguntas y preocupaciones tienen sobre el COVID-19. Cada uno reacciona de distinta manera, pero las preguntas de sus hijos puede guiar la discusión. Escuche y responda las preguntas con hechos, en una forma en que ellos entiendan. Si usted no sabe la respuesta a las preguntas, sea honesto/a. Déjeles saber que hay muchos rumores e información falsa y que usted les ayudará a conocer los hechos. Si es apropiado para la edad de sus hijos, también puede mostrarles cómo buscar las respuestas en un sitio web confiable. Los mejores lugares para aprender sobre el COVID-19 son los Centros de Control y Prevención de Enfermedades (CDC, por sus siglas en inglés) y la Organización Mundial de la Salud. Para obtener más consejos, puede leer el artículo en inglés, "How to talk to your kids about COVID-19" (Cómo hablar con sus hijos sobre el COVID-19) <https://www.mayoclinic.org/es-es/diseases-conditions/coronavirus/in-depth/kids-covid-19/art-20482508>.
